POULTRY SHOW.

What Director T. E. Quisenberry Has

in Winter.

erel.

first and second cockerel, first and third pullet.

Mrs. James Hook, Maryville, third cockerel, first hen.

Mrs. W. B. Gex, Graham, second and third hen and second pullet.

The above are the winners as announced Thursday at the poultry show being held this week by the Northwest Poultry association in the Mason & Wilderman garage. The judging is being done by E. M. Quay of LaPorte, Ind., and it will take all of today and part of tomorrow to finish the work.

The show is not being as well attended as it should. One reason for this is probably the weather. It is expected that Friday and Saturday will be big days.

There are quite a number of fine birds on exhibition, and it would be worth anyone's time to see them. The center of attraction seems to be the prize hens of John S. Gross and Crawford & Saylor, that took first and fourth respectively in the second international egg laying contest at Mountain Grove, Mo. The eagle is also attracting attention.

How to get eggs in winter? That seems to be the problem of many who have chickens. Here is what T. E.
Quisenberry, director of the Missouri state poultry experiment station, has to say about the matter:

A fresh egg, in winter, is one of nature's choicest delicacies, yet one which should be found on every breakfast table. The price of winter eggs, however, makes them almost prohibitive in many homes. It is the purpose of this brief article to offer a few simple suggestions, to the end that a large proportion of your hens may produce a liberal number of eggs during the next few months.

First, see that your hens are properly housed. The henhouse need not be expensive. It should provide perfect protection from wind and storms.
It should be dry, else there will be trouble from colds and roup. It should face the south with a shed roof sloping toward the north.

The openings on the south should be large enough to admit plenty of sunshine, for abundance of sunshine is one of the best secrets of winter egg production, as well as one of the best preventives of disease. Provision should be made for good ventilation without drafts.

Fresh air is more important than warmth. A ventilator two feet square, made of fixed shutters, similar to those often used in the cupolas of barns, will admit the fresh air, and at the same time keep out the wind and snow. Another good way is by means of a curtain of muslin, tacked on a frame, hinged at the top, and swung inward.

This can be opened in daytime and closed at night. When the curtain is closed considerable air will come through the cloth provided care is taken to brush away the dust every few days. A droppings platform should be built along the back side, about three feet above the floor, and the roosts placed about eight inches above it. In this way the floor is kept clean for scratching purposes.

Do not make the serious mistake of overcrowding. About four square feet of floor space should be allowed for each hen. Thus not more than two dozen hens should be kept in a house 8x12 feet in size.

Second, see that you have the right kind of hens. Very little can be expected either from old fat hens or of young, immature pullets. The best layers are well matured pullets (hatched not later than April), and yearling hens. They should be strong, healthy and vigorous, well over the molt and free from lice and mites.

Third, see that they have the right kind of feed and plenty of it. The following system of feeding has proven very successful in Mountain Grove, Mo.: In winter the scratch feed is composed of two-thirds coarsely cracked corn and one-third wheat.
In the spring and fall they are given equal parts of cracked corn and wheat.

In the summer they get two parts wheat and one part cracked corn.
About a pint of this mixture is fed to each ten hens night and morning in a deep litter of straw. The straw should be from 8 inches to a foot deep.
Keeping the hens busy is another very important essential to winter eggs.

In addition to the above scratch feed a dry mash composed of nothing but ground oats is kept before them at all times in a feed hopper. If the ground oats cannot be secured a mixture of two parts bran, one part corn meal and one part shorts will do.

Sour milk or buttermilk is also kept before them at all times. Where the milk is not available about ten pounds of beef scraps should be mixed with each 100 pounds of the ground oats.
Where flocks are kept confined they should be provided with good, sharp grit, oyster shell and charcoal. Provide plenty of fresh water. In cold weather it is a good plan to water three times a day with warm water.

Some sort of green feed is essential. For this purpose nothing is better than sprouted oats. Good oats sprout-ers can be purchased from most supply stores, or can be easily constructed at home. Neither light nor artificial heat is required to sprout oats, provided they are kept in a cellar or basement where the temperature does not go much below 60 degrees.

First soak the oats twenty-four hours in a bucket of water, then drain off the water and turn out the oats in a shallow box or tray. Repeat daily.
By the end of a week you will have seven trays of sprouting oats, when the first tray should be ready to feed.
(The trays of sprouting oats should have porous bottoms and should be sprinkled daily.) Thus you can provide for a continual succession of green feed throughout the winter.

Hens are largely creatures of habit, and regularity in feeding and care is important. Follow the above suggestions carefully and we feel sure you will be rewarded with a liberal supply of precious "hen fruit."

CASE IN KANSAS SUPREME COURT

L. C. Cook Arguing a Case in Topeka, Kan., for J. Ed Bilby, Who is Defendant in Suit.

L. C. Cook of the law firm of Cook, Cummins & Dawson is in Topeka, Kan., this week arguing a case in the supreme court of that state. The case is that of the Scott City & Northern railway against J. Ed Bilby of Quitman, Mr. Cook representing Mr. Bilby.
The suit is for $30,000. When the railroad company was building their road Mr. Bilby agreed to give them $1 an acre for the 30,000 acres of land he owns in Kansas if the company would follow a certain route and make two towns in that body of land. The company built their road, but Mr. Bil-by claims that they did not follow the route, as was agreed on. So Mr. Bilby refused to pay the sum of $30,000, and the railroad company brought suit against him in the district court, he winning the suit in that court. An appeal was taken to the supreme court of Kansas by the railroad, and the case is up in that court this week, being argued by the attorneys.

THE CONTRACT LET WILL PAY HOMAGE

FOR THE 102 DRAINAGE DITCH TO STEVENS & CO.

THE PRICE IS $32,000 FOR DEPARTED ONES

Work to Start March 1 and Contractor Guarantees to Finish It in Six Months Time.

The contract for the digging of the 102 drainage ditch was let Wednesday evening by the drainage board of that district to D. C. Stevens & Co. of Buffalo, N. Y. The contract price is $32,000.

The contractor will have to give satisfactory bond for the work to be done. In case that is not done the drainage board will give the job to the next lowest and best bidder.

Stevens & Co. guarantee to make the entire ditching six months after the work commences. They will be ready to start March 1, and the dredge boat to be used is now in Carroll county, Iowa. Mr. Whitney of Villisca, Ia., will be the operator of the boat, and he was in attendance at the board meeting on Wednesday.

The ditch is to be over 18 miles long and starts at the Iowa line. The work will start at the line and the ditch will be a continuation of the ditch now nearly completed in Iowa and which runs to the state line. The dredge boat will take it up there.

Anderson Craig, president of the board, has made satisfactory arrangements with the Wabash railroad to get under their track with the boat. While the ditch will go under the Burlington track, the old channel will be used at that place.

The ditch extends from the Iowa line to the Carr bridge and is 18 miles long.

As the dredge boat is a 12-foot boat, the ditch will be that wide, and will cost the district less than 6 cents per cubic yard for the excavation. On the basis of an 8-foot ditch at the bottom, the price would be 7.07 cents per cubic yard.

The ditch will be 16 feet deep. Already $30,000 has been spent on the work on the drainage ditch, but it was not satisfactory as it was not deep enough or wide enough. The corporation has been extended and a new bond issue floated for $30,000, and the money is now available.

The next best bid received by the board was that of Lewis & Holaway of Humboldt, Ia., being $36,000. The next best bid was $40,000 and was the bid of Chapman Bros. of Celina, O.
The other bids ran up to $50,000.

The board was in session from early morning and up to 8 o'clock Wednesday evening.

WHY NOT A CAT SHOW?

The Poultry Association Could Augment Interest and Have Fun Beside—Success in West.

It is a wonder that E. L. Andrews, the fine poultry fancier and breeder, and the only all-round funny man of the poultry association show now on,
had not thought of it his own self before. But out west, in Trinidad, a recent poultry show catalogue has a department for a cat show, and it is said they are genuine successes.

Mr. Andrews has a beauty of a cat that he thinks as much of as any member of the family, almost, and he made an awful big fuss one time about a year ago when the cat strayed off and advertised for him. That would be a good start for the show. The catalogue referred to has prizes offered for:

The best Angora, any age.
The best Persian, any age.
The best Maltese, any age.
The best Brindle, any age.
The best cat any color, any age.
The ugliest cat, any age.
The best mouser, any age.

The best vocalist, any age (the last two to be a matter of record, on testimony of neighbors).

The best family of cat and kittens.

A department of this kind at the poultry show would add a good deal to the general interest of the whole affair.

Dr. F. R. Anthony went to Kansas City Thursday morning on business.
He will return Thursday night.

THE REVIVAL MEETINGS.

Rev. Finch Spoke on "The Transforming Power of a Vision" Wednesday Night.

The revival meetings being held at the First Christian church are being well attended and a great deal of interest taken in them. The pastor of the church, Rev. Robert L. Finch, in speaking on the subject "The Transforming Power of a Vision" Wednesday night, said:

"The delegation of Greeks who came to see Jesus may have been inspired only by curiosity, but their curiosity was doubtless rewarded by a clear vision of the perfect man. Such has been the reward of those who would 'see Jesus' across the nineteen centuries of Christianity. Not only does the vision of Jesus regenerate the individual, but communities and nations as well.

"Were Maryville to 'see Jesus' tonight, by 10 o'clock tomorrow morning there would be enough money pledged to make sure the erection of a Y. M.
C. A. for the conservation of the lives of her young men. Some boy or young man will go down to destruction, maybe, or perhaps next week or possibly this year here in Maryville, because no institution of this kind throws out the life-line in the time of temptation.

The self-satisfied citizen of wealth says, 'Oh, well, my boy won't be lost,' I should like to ask if there would be any withholding of money or interest, my brother, if it were your boy who is to be lost? You say 'certainly not.'
Then the religion of Jesus Christ insists that you regard the salvation of your neighbor's boy as of equal importance with the salvation of your own boy. This is what a clear vision of Jesus means. This is a herald of the coming Brotherhood of Man which will prevail among men whenever they see—not dollars, not self—not only business, but the glory of service exemplified by the cross of Jesus Christ."

TO FINISH INSPECTION TRIP.

Township Engineer Bainum Has Been
Over Three-Fourths of Polk Township.

Township Highway Engineer W. H.
Bainum, who is making an inspection trip over Polk township to look over the culverts, bridges and roads under the direction of the Polk township board, will soon finish this work. If good weather is had for the next ten days he will be through in that time.

Mr. Bainum has up to the present time been over three-fourths of the township and he says that the culverts are very bad. He is going over every road and bridge and culvert and making out notes in regard to the condition, the drainage area, and other items of the bridges and culverts, and also notes in regard to changes in the road.

When the inspection work is through Mr. Bainum will then draw a map of the township with all of the culverts, bridges and roads so that the members of the township board can see where the money should be spent and where it is the most needed. Notes of each culvert will be on the map, and also in regard to bridges and roads.

The township board will not start their work until next spring, as the money from the $50,000 bond issue will not be available until that time.
They hope to start by March 1. Mr.
Bainum will look after all of the work to be done.

The board will see that each district in the township will receive a like amount for work to be done, but nearly all of the money will be spent for culverts, as they are more needed than to do road work.

DRINKING LESS LIQUOR.

Falling Off in the Consumption of Whisky and Beer in Western Missouri is Noted.

The sixty-one counties comprising the western half of Missouri are consuming less whisky and beer than in former years, according to reports made to C. G. Burton, internal revenue collector. The receipts of the liquor tax have shown a decrease since July over the corresponding months of last year with one exception.

"Our November collections were off $38,000, and only August has shown an increase this year," Burton said. "I believe this reduction is due to the aroused public sentiment against drinking and the adoption of local option."

Mozingo Funeral Thursday.

The funeral services for the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Mozingo, who died Wednesday afternoon, were held at the family home in East Halsey street Thursday afternoon, Rev.
Louis M. Hale of the First Baptist church, officiating. Burial took place in Oak Hill cemetery.

MAY CHANGE ROAD

UNLESS THE PEOPLE WILL SEE TO
THE DRAGGING.

WANT TO BE KEPT UP

And If They Are Not by People Living
Along These Highways, County Sent Roads to Go Elsewhere.

At the meeting of the county highway commission on Wednesday afternoon, when a few applications were received for the dragging of the county seat roads, it was decided to again make an appeal to the people living along these roads to send in their application for the work. For two of the roads no application has been received at all for dragging, and it may even become necessary to change these highways and route them over roads that the people will keep up, by dragging for the sum of $15 a mile per year.

About forty miles of the 144 miles of county seat roads in the county have been applied for. No contracts will be made until later on. Wherever it is possible the commission desires that the people living along these roads take the contract for the dragging, as they would be more interested in the work than someone outside.

The commission wants the dragging work to start before real winter weather sets in. They will meet again in a few weeks and expect at that time to contract for the dragging of every mile of the county seats highway.

Ogden & Son Purchased Fair Acres
Sultan at International to Head Their Herd.

Eugene Ogden returned Thursday morning from Chicago, where he and Lawrence Ogden went last Friday to attend the International live stock show.

Lawrence Ogden will not return until Saturday or Monday, when he will bring with him Fair Acres Sultan, a pure white Shorthorn bull they purchased at the show of J. A. Kilgore of Sterling, Ill., to head their herd at their farm, just south of Maryville.

Fair Acres Sultan is 3 years old and was a first prize winner at the Illinois state fair this year in the 3-year-old and over class.

Fair Acres Sultan is a son of the famous Whitehall Sultan. His dam was grand champion at the American Royal show in Kansas City three years ago. Five of his calves were winners at the International show in Chicago this year. Three heifers won in the fifth senior class and third class, respectively, at the International this year and one male calf one in the fifth senior class. And several other of his calves won at the Illinois state fair this year.

Mr. Ogden says there were more entries this year at the show than ever before, and there were fully forty entered in the same ring in which Fair Acres Whitehall was shown.

Street Commissioner M. I. Woods and his gang of men are busily at work cleaning the mud from the cross-

A number of drinking fountains have been installed on the ground floor.

"CASCARETS" RELIEVE

Get a 10-cent box now.

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, dizziness and sick headache, means a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good gentle cleansing, too.—Advertisement.

Here it is December, and Some Men

Are still without new Overcoats, despite the lateness of the date we're still splendidly ready for them.

If they want to dispatch this "unfinished" business quickly, we advise their coming direct to our store—they'll find more Overcoats, more styles, more patterns, more colors and greater values, than any other clothing store in Maryville can show them. Its really interesting to note how we've departed from price tradition.

We have just received a new lot of Overcoats, closed out from an overstocked manufacturer, who needed the money, and just to stir things up a little we are going to sell these coats at $7.50 and $10.00, all sizes, all wool, nicely made and trimmed. Coats that will fit well, look well, wear well, durable cloth. You will be surprised to see Mens Overcoats at such prices. We have others at $15.00, $18.00, $20.00, $22.50 and $25.00.

Some Men use an Overcoat as though it were a mask, they hide their suits with it. For men and young men who want to look "presentable" through and through, we recommend our huge display of suits. A special purchase enables us to offer some extra values in men's and young men's suits at $10. Others at $15.00, $18.00, $20.00, $22.50 and $25.00

R. T. Reds.

Dick Viles, Maryville, first cock, first and second cockerel, first and third pullet.

Mrs. James Hook, Maryville, third cockerel, first hen.

Mrs. W. B. Gex, Graham, second and third hen and second pullet.

The above are the winners as announced Thursday at the poultry show being held this week by the Northwest Poultry association in the Mason & Wilderman garage. The judging is being done by E. M. Quay of LaPorte, Ind., and it will take all of today and part of tomorrow to finish the work.

The show is not being as well attended as it should. One reason for this is probably the weather. It is expected that Friday and Saturday will be big days.

There are quite a number of fine birds on exhibition, and it would be worth anyone's time to see them. The center of attraction seems to be the prize hens of John S. Gross and Crawford & Saylor, that took first and fourth respectively in the second international egg laying contest at Mountain Grove, Mo. The eagle is also attracting attention.

How to get eggs in winter? That seems to be the problem of many who have chickens. Here is what T. E. Quisenberry, director of the Missouri state poultry experiment station, has to say about the matter:

A fresh egg, in winter, is one of nature's choicest delicacies, yet one which should be found on every breakfast table. The price of winter eggs, however, makes them almost prohibitive in many homes. It is the purpose of this brief article to offer a few simple suggestions, to the end that a large proportion of your hens may produce a liberal number of eggs during the next few months.

First, see that your hens are properly housed. The henhouse need not be expensive. It should provide perfect protection from wind and storms. It should be dry, else there will be trouble from colds and roup. It should face the south with a shed roof sloping toward the north.

The openings on the south should be large enough to admit plenty of sunshine, for abundance of sunshine is one of the best secrets of winter egg production, as well as one of the best preventives of disease. Provision should be made for good ventilation without drafts.

Fresh air is more important than warmth. A ventilator two feet square, made of fixed shutters, similar to those often used in the cupolas of barns, will admit the fresh air, and at the same time keep out the wind and snow. Another good way is by means of a curtain of muslin, tacked on a frame, hinged at the top, and swung inward.

This can be opened in daytime and closed at night. When the curtain is closed considerable air will come through the cloth provided care is taken to brush away the dust every few days. A droppings platform should be built along the back side, about three feet above the floor, and the roosts placed about eight inches above it. In this way the floor is kept clean for scratching purposes.

Do not make the serious mistake of overcrowding. About four square feet of floor space should be allowed for each hen. Thus not more than two dozen hens should be kept in a house 8x12 feet in size.

Second, see that you have the right kind of hens. Very little can be expected either from old fat hens or of young, immature pullets. The best layers are well matured pullets (hatched not later than April), and yearling hens. They should be strong, healthy and vigorous, well over the molt and free from lice and mites.

Third, see that they have the right kind of feed and plenty of it. The following system of feeding has proven very successful in Mountain Grove, Mo.: In winter the scratch feed is composed of two-thirds coarse cracked corn and one-third wheat. In the spring and fall they are given equal parts of cracked corn and wheat.

In the summer they get two parts wheat and one part cracked corn. About a pint of this mixture is fed to each ten hens night and morning in a deep litter of straw. The straw should be from 8 inches to a foot deep. Keeping the hens busy is another very important essential to winter eggs.

In addition to the above scratch feed a dry mash composed of nothing but ground oats is kept before them at all times in a feed hopper. If the ground oats cannot be secured a mixture of two parts bran, one part corn meal and one part shorts will do.

Sour milk or buttermilk is also kept before them at all times. Where the milk is not available about ten pounds of beef scraps should be mixed with each 100 pounds of the ground oats. Where flocks are kept confined they should be provided with good, sharp grit, oyster shell and charcoal. Provide plenty of fresh water. In cold weather it is a good plan to water three times a day with warm water.

Some sort of green feed is essential. For this purpose nothing is better than sprouted oats. Good oats sprouters can be purchased from most supply stores, or can be easily constructed at home. Neither light nor artificial heat is required to sprout oats, provided they are kept in a cellar or basement where the temperature does not go much below 60 degrees.

First soak the oats twenty-four hours in a bucket of water, then drain off the water and turn out the oats in a shallow box or tray. Repeat daily. By the end of a week you will have seven trays of sprouting oats, when the first tray should be ready to feed. (The trays of sprouting oats should have porous bottoms and should be sprinkled daily.) Thus you can provide for a continual succession of green feed throughout the winter.

Hens are largely creatures of habit, and regularity in feeding and care is important. Follow the above suggestions carefully and we feel sure you will be rewarded with a liberal supply of precious "hen fruit."

CASE IN KANSAS SUPREME COURT

L. C. Cook Arguing a Case in Topeka, Kan., for J. Ed Bilby, Who is Defendant in Suit.

L. C. Cook of the law firm of Cook, Cummins & Dawson is in Topeka, Kan., this week arguing a case in the supreme court of that state. The case is that of the Scott City & Northern railway against J. Ed Bilby of Quitman, Mr. Cook representing Mr. Bilby.

The suit is for $30,000. When the railroad company was building their road Mr. Bilby agreed to give them $1 an acre for the 30,000 acres of land he owns in Kansas if the company would follow a certain route and make two towns in that body of land. The company built their road, but Mr. Bilby claims that they did not follow the route, as was agreed on. So Mr. Bilby refused to pay the sum of $30,000, and the railroad company brought suit against him in the district court, he winning the suit in that court. An appeal was taken to the supreme court of Kansas by the railroad, and the case is up in that court this week, being argued by the attorneys.

Mrs. N. J. Vickery of Arkoe attended the poultry show in Maryville Wednesday.

Mrs. F. E. Rutherford and Miss Mildred Rutherford of Hamlin, Kan., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Sipes.

THE CONTRACT LET

FOR THE 102 DRAINAGE DITCH TO STEVENS & CO.

THE PRICE IS $32,000

Work to Start March 1 and Contractor Guarantees to Finish It in Six Months Time.

The contract for the digging of the 102 drainage ditch was let Wednesday evening by the drainage board of that district to D. C. Stevens & Co. of Buffalo, N. Y. The contract price is $32,000.

The contractor will have to give satisfactory bond for the work to be done. In case that is not done the drainage board will give the job to the next lowest and best bidder.

Stevens & Co. guarantee to make the entire ditching six months after the work commences. They will be ready to start March 1, and the dredge boat to be used is now in Carroll county, Iowa. Mr. Whitney of Villisca, Ia., will be the operator of the boat, and he was in attendance at the board meeting on Wednesday.

The ditch is to be over 18 miles long and starts at the Iowa line. The work will start at the line and the ditch will be a continuation of the ditch now nearly completed in Iowa and which runs to the state line. The dredge boat will take it up there.

Anderson Craig, president of the board, has made satisfactory arrangements with the Wabash railroad to get under their track with the boat. While the ditch will go under the Burlington track, the old channel will be used at that place.

The ditch extends from the Iowa line to the Carr bridge and is 18 miles long.

As the dredge boat is a 12-foot boat, the ditch will be that wide, and will cost the district less than 6 cents per cubic yard for the excavation. On the basis of an 8-foot ditch at the bottom, the price would be 7.07 cents per cubic yard.

The ditch will be 16 feet deep. Already $30,000 has been spent on the work on the drainage ditch, but it was not satisfactory as it was not deep enough or wide enough. The corporation has been extended and a new bond issue floated for $30,000, and the money is now available.

The next best bid received by the board was that of Lewis & Holaway of Humboldt, Ia., being $36,000. The next best bid was $40,000 and was the bid of Chapman Bros. of Celina, O. The other bids ran up to $50,000.

The board was in session from early morning and up to 8 o'clock Wednesday evening.

Will Speak at Missionary Conference.

Rev. S. D. Harkness of the First Presbyterian church went to Albany Thursday morning to speak at the mission conference being held there. He takes the place of Dr. J. H. Spier on the program. Dr. Spier was called away on business. He will speak in the Presbyterian church of this city the coming Sunday. Rev. Harkness will return Friday night.

Miss Carrie Thomas of Conception was shopping in Maryville Monday.

WILL PAY HOMAGE

ELKS TO HAVE MEMORIAL SERVICES SUNDAY.

FOR DEPARTED ONES

The members of the Elks lodge of this city will pay homage to the memory of their departed brothers in their club house on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. It is the annual occasion in Elksdom all over the United States, and the Maryville lodge has arranged a fine program for its observance.

The memorial services will be public. The following is the program: March, selected—Miss Alice Porter. Opening ceremony by Exalted Ruler H. L. Stinson.

Roll of deceased brothers by Secretary F. C. Wallis.

Singing by quartet composed of Prof. P. O. Landon, Orlo Quinn, Miss Nellie Wray and Miss Marie Jones.

Ritualistic work by the officers of the lodge.

Hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

Invocation by Rev. Robert L. Finch, pastor of the First Christian church.

Solo, "Love Never Faleth," F. Root—Miss Marie Jones.

Doxology.

Benediction by Rev. L. M. Hale of the First Baptist church.

There are thirteen deceased members of the local Elks lodge.

WHY NOT A CAT SHOW?

The Poultry Association Could Augment Interest and Have Fun Beside—Success in West.

It is a wonder that E. L. Andrews, the fine poultry fancier and breeder, and the only all-round funny man of the Poultry association show now on, had not thought of it his own self before. But out west, in Trinidad, a recent poultry show catalogue has a department for a cat show, and it is said they are genuine successes.

Mr. Andrews has a beauty of a cat that he thinks as much of as any member of the family, almost, and he made an awful big fuss one time about a year ago when the cat strayed off and advertised for him. That would be a good start for the show. The catalogue referred to has prizes offered for:

The best Angora, any age.

The best Persian, any age.

The best Maltese, any age.

The best Brindle, any age.

The best cat any color, any age.

The ugliest cat, any age.

The best mouser, any age.

The best vocalist, any age (the last two to be a matter of record, on testimony of neighbors).

The best family of cat and kittens.

A department of this kind at the poultry show would add a good deal to the general interest of the whole affair.

Dr. F. R. Anthony went to Kansas City Thursday morning on business. He will return Thursday night.

THE REVIVAL MEETINGS.

Rev. Finch Spoke on "The Transforming Power of a Vision" Wednesday Night.

The revival meetings being held at the First Christian church are being well attended and a great deal of interest taken in them. The pastor of the church, Rev. Robert L. Finch, in speaking on the subject "The Transforming Power of a Vision" Wednesday night, said:

"The delegation of Greeks who came to see Jesus may have been inspired only by curiosity, but their curiosity was doubtless rewarded by a clear vision of the perfect man. Such has been the reward of those who would 'see Jesus' across the nineteen centuries of Christianity. Not only does the vision of Jesus regenerate the individual, but communities and nations as well.

"Were Maryville to 'see Jesus' tonight, by 10 o'clock tomorrow morning there would be enough money pledged to make sure the erection of a Y. M. C. A. for the conservation of the lives of her young men. Some boy or young man will go down to destruction, may be, or perhaps next week or possibly this year here in Maryville, because no institution of this kind throws out the life-line in the time of temptation.

The self-satisfied citizen of wealth says, 'Oh, well, my boy won't be lost,' I should like to ask if there would be any withholding of money or interest, my brother, if it were your boy who is to be lost? You say 'certainly not.' Then the religion of Jesus Christ insists that you regard the salvation of your neighbor's boy as of equal importance with the salvation of your own boy. This is what a clear vision of Jesus means. This is a herald of the coming Brotherhood of Man which will prevail among men whenever they see—not dollars, not self—not only business, but the glory of service exemplified by the cross of Jesus Christ."

TO FINISH INSPECTION TRIP.

Township Engineer Bainum Has Been Over Three-Fourths of Polk Township.

Township Highway Engineer W. H. Bainum, who is making an inspection trip over Polk township to look over the culverts, bridges and roads under the direction of the Polk township board, will soon finish this work. If good weather is had for the next ten days he will be through in that time.

Mr. Bainum has up to the present time been over three-fourths of the township and he says that the culverts are very bad. He is going over every road and bridge and culvert and making out notes in regard to the condition, the drainage area, and other items of the bridges and culverts, and also notes in regard to changes in the road.

When the inspection work is through Mr. Bainum will then draw a map of the township with all of the culverts, bridges and roads so that the members of the township board can see where the money should be spent and where it is the most needed. Notes of each culvert will be on the map, and also in regard to bridges and roads.

The township board will not start their work until next spring, as the money from the $50,000 bond issue will not be available until that time. They hope to start by March 1. Mr. Bainum will look after all of the work to be done.

The board will see that each district in the township will receive a like amount for work to be done, but nearly all of the money will be spent for culverts, as they are more needed than to do road work.

DRINKING LESS LIQUOR.

Falling Off in the Consumption of Whisky and Beer in Western Missouri is Noted.

The sixty-one counties comprising the western half of Missouri are consuming less whisky and beer than in former years, according to reports made to C. G. Burton, internal revenue collector. The receipts of the liquor tax have shown a decrease since July over the corresponding months of last year with one exception.

"Our November collections were off $38,000, and only August has shown an increase this year," Burton said. "I believe this reduction is due to the aroused public sentiment against drinking and the adoption of local option."

Mozingo Funeral Thursday.

The funeral services for the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Mozingo, who died Wednesday afternoon, were held at the family home in East Halsey street Thursday afternoon, Rev. Louis M. Hale of the First Baptist church, officiating. Burial took place in Oak Hill cemetery.

MAY CHANGE ROAD

UNLESS THE PEOPLE WILL SEE TO THE DRAGGING.

WANT TO BE KEPT UP

And if They Are Not by People Living Along These Highways, County Seat Roads to Go Elsewhere.

At the meeting of the county highway commission on Wednesday afternoon, when a few applications were received for the dragging of the county seat roads, it was decided to again make an appeal to the people living along these roads to send in their application for the work. For two of the roads no application has been received at all for dragging, and it may even become necessary to change these highways and route them over roads that the people will keep up by dragging for the sum of $15 a mile per year.

About forty miles of the 144 miles of county seat roads in the county have been applied for. No contracts will be made until later on. Wherever it is possible the commission desires that the people living along these roads take the contract for the dragging, as they would be more interested in the work than someone outside.

The commission wants the dragging work to start before real winter weather sets in. They will meet again in a few weeks and expect at that time to contract for the dragging of every mile of the county seats highway.

PAID $1,200 FOR SHORTHORN.

Ogden & Son Purchased Fair Acres Sultan at International to Head Their Herd.

Eugene Ogden returned Thursday morning from Chicago, where he and Lawrence Ogden went last Friday to attend the International live stock show.

Lawrence Ogden will not return until Saturday or Monday, when he will bring with him Fair Acres Sultan, a pure white Shorthorn bull they purchased at the show of J. A. Kilgore of Sterling, Ill., to head their herd at their farm, just south of Maryville.

Fair Acres Sultan is 3 years old and was a first prize winner at the Illinois state fair this year in the 3-year-old and over class.

Fair Acres Sultan is a son of the famous Whitehall Sultan. His dam was grand champion at the American Royal show in Kansas City three years ago. Five of his calves were winners at the International show in Chicago this year. Three heifers won in the fifth senior class and third class, respectively, at the International this year and one male calf one in the fifth senior class. And several other of his calves won at the Illinois state fair this year.

Mr. Ogden says there were more entries this year at the show than ever before, and there were fully forty entered in the same ring in which Fair Acres Whitehall was shown.

Street Commissioner M. I. Woods and his gang of men are busily at work cleaning the mud from the crossings.

Mr. Embree was taken sick a week ago with grip, which has affected his heart, and he has grown weaker gradually. Mrs. D. E. Mills of Chicago came Wednesday. Mr. Embree's sickness is news to his friends, as the special nurse in charge of his case had thought best to keep him as quiet as possible, so that phone inquiries would not disturb him.

GIRLS! THICKEN AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Bring Back Its Gloss, Lustre, Charm and Get Rid of Dandruff—Try the Moist Cloth.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.—Advertisement.

embroidery scissors, picture shows and ice cream. These little extravagances were confessed to by Mrs. M. D. Kemp, Mrs. C. J. Eckert, Mrs. Edward Egley, Mrs. J. C. Farrar, Mrs. W. O. Garrett and Mrs. George Stafford. After roll call two excellent papers were read on "Sewing" by Mrs. Farrar and Mrs. Eckert, Mrs. Farrar giving the history of the needle and Mrs. Eckert the history of sewing materials. A nice luncheon was served during the social hour. The guests were Mrs. Henry Eckert, Mrs. Leslie Dean, Mrs. J. H. Steele of Mound City, Mrs. Warren Jones and Mrs. R. C. Seal.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The ventilating system of the high school building was improved the first of the week. Pipes leading to the exterior of the building were installed in the laboratory and the domestic science room to lead from the building the odors which might arise from the various experimenting. On account of this work it was necessary to omit the laboratory work of the science classes Monday and Tuesday.

A number of drinking fountains have been installed on the ground floor.

Mr. Horace Campbell, a former member of this high school, who is now attending the William Jewell college at Liberty, Mo., was a visitor Monday.

Mr. G. F. Nardin a former superintendent of the Savannah schools, who is now representing the Houten-Mifflin Book Co., was at the high school Wednesday.

"CASCARETS" RELIEVE

Get a 10-cent box now.
That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, dizziness and sick headache, means a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Quickly Shatters the Nervous System—Immediate Action Necessary—Try MI-O-NA.

When you feel irritable, tired and despondent—when you have nervous twitchings, specks before the eyes, headaches, sour stomach, heartburn, indigestion and pains in the colon and bowels—you suffer from indigestion, which soon develops into dyspepsia—the chief cause of nerve exhaustion—you need MI-O-NA at once.

Here it is December, and Some Men

Are still without new Overcoats; despite the lateness of the date we're still splendidly ready for them.

If they want to dispatch this "unfinished" business quickly, we advise their coming direct to our store—they'll find more Overcoats, more styles, more patterns, more colors and greater values, than any other clothing store in Maryville can show them. Its really interesting to note how we've departed from price tradition.

We have just received a new lot of Overcoats, closed out from an overstocked manufacturer, who needed the money, and just to stir things up a little we are going to sell these coats at $7.50 and $10.00, all sizes, all wool, nicely made and trimmed. Coats that will fit well, look well, wear well, durable cloth. You will be surprised to see Mens Overcoats at such prices. We have others at $15.00, $18.00, $20.00, $22.50 and $25.00.

Some Men use an Overcoat as though it were a mask, they hide their suits with it. For men and young men who want to look "presentable" through and through, we recommend our huge display of suits. A special purchase enables us to offer some extra values in men's and young men's suits at $10. Others at $15.00, $18.00, $20.00, $22.50 and $25.00
